

I do not want businesses having the "right" to call me whenever they desire just because at one time or another I did business with them. The companies that I frequent know how and "when" to contact me. Don't I have the "right" not to be called at all hours? I pay the phone bill not the other way around.